2025

Energising the UK Battery
Ecosystem

Sponsorship and Exhibition Prospectus

Tuesday 9 – Thursday 11 September 2025

University of Warwick

Delivered by
Innovate UK

Welcome Invitation

On behalf of the Faraday Institution, the Local Organising Committee and the Scientific Programme Board, we are delighted to invite organisations with an interest in electrochemical energy storage research to participate in the Faraday Institution Conference 2025, from Tuesday 9 – Thursday 11 September, giving you the opportunity to actively showcase your current innovative products and services. WMG, The University of Warwick and the West Midlands provide the perfect backdrop to this energy storage conference, showcasing the region's ever-evolving activity in the research and development of batteries – a real ecosystem of innovation in the drive towards net zero.

There will be sessions for industry participation in the conference agenda, including opportunities to align your business's core values with the theme of the conference – Energising the UK Battery Ecosystem. The conference will include a range of sponsorship and exhibition opportunities to establish partnerships with the UK and international battery research community.

Join us for what will be the Faraday Institution's largest and most open science dissemination and networking event to date. Following the success of the 2024 Conference, we are again expecting upwards of 500 delegates, bringing together the community of academics from both UK and international institutions, fellow industry organisations, policy makers and funders, to disseminate battery research and raise the visibility of UK scientific excellence in energy storage.

Your support is key to the success of our meeting and we encourage you to consider the excellent opportunities enclosed in this prospectus. If the packages detailed do not necessarily meet your company's specific marketing objectives, please do not hesitate to contact the organisers to discuss tailor-made packages.

Join us to raise awareness, meet new business partners, generate new ideas, gather new knowledge, foster collaborations, and meet key decision makers.

We look forward to seeing you at the University of Warwick in September 2025 and thank you for your interest.
